

Mom always said to read the fine print. Basically this is where we go over all the legal stuff you might want to know about using a Prometheus Concierge service.

I am utilizing Concierge services from Prometheus Real Estate Group, Inc. that may require the property staff, and/or their designee(s), to enter my apartment while I am not home.

I give permission to enter my apartment, as needed and in my absence, to fulfill orders I place with the company's Concierge, regardless of which of the occupants requested the service (when more than one resident is on the lease).

This permission to enter my apartment for fulfillment of Concierge services will remain in effect until the services I've requested have been completed.

Should I decide to withdraw this permission, I must notify on-site property management and do so in writing.

As a result of this agreement, it is understood that Prometheus Real Estate Group, Inc. and its agents and assigns are held harmless and without liability for any claim, dispute, or loss resulting therein.
